

ACCOMMODATIONS

Bigelow Lodge

The lodge sleeps eight to ten guests. It is fully furnished, with a galley kitchen, cooking utensils and dishes, bathroom with shower, large fieldstone fireplace, lake views with access, canoe and linens.

Five Cabins and Tumbledown

Each cabin sleeps six to eight guests, fully furnished, woodstove, bathroom with shower, TV/VCR/DVD, toaster, coffee maker, microwave, full size refrigerator and electric stove, cooking utensils and dishes, heat, screened porch, lake views with access and linens. Tumbledown: One of the original cabins, fully furnished, washer and dryer. Available May through November.

Fifteen Campsites

Each campsite is equipped with electrical and water hook-ups, fire ring and picnic table. Sites are suitable for RV, pop-up or tent camping. Bathhouse with shower and toilet facilities located near sites. There is an on-site waste disposal station located near the campsite area.

Yurts

A Yurt is a unique round structure that combines the qualities of a tent in that they have canvas side walls and the stability of a quasi-cabin in that they have a wood skeleton complete with windows, a door and skylight and they are constructed on a raised wooden deck.

The three, 24 foot yurts are located in the campground and are equipped with basic furnishings, TV with DVD and VCR, microwave oven, gas grill, electricity, heat, water hook-up as well as an outdoor picnic table and fire ring.

Two additional yurts, a 12-foot and a 16-foot are at more remote, wilderness locations and have an outhouse and basic furnishings.
